

Youth Advocacy Council

A project of Health Futures of Texas

About the Youth Advocacy Council

Healthy Futures of Texas (HFTX) is a San Antonio based non-profit organization working to reduce teen and unplanned pregnancy by providing health education to parents and teens through school districts and various community organizations. The Youth Advocacy Council (YAC), a project of HFTX, empowers San Antonio area teens to become leaders of change in their community regarding sexual health education and teen pregnancy prevention through civic participation at the local and state level.

Why advocacy and teen pregnancy prevention?

- ❖ Bring awareness to the challenges that involve adolescents and their livelihood.
- ❖ Garner support for factual information & science-based approaches regarding sexual health education.
- ❖ Advocate for evidence-based, medically-accurate sexual health education in Texas schools.
- ❖ Advocate for increased funding and greater access to healthcare to ensure young people are equipped to make healthy decisions about their own reproductive health.

Youth Advocacy Council membership benefits:

- ❖ Be a leader of change
- ❖ Learn about teen sexual health
- ❖ Meet other San Antonio teens
- ❖ Fulfill community service hours
- ❖ Earn monthly stipends
- ❖ Meet Elected Officials
- ❖ Share your story & voice your opinions
- ❖ Increase skills in advocacy & public speaking
- ❖ Represent your peers
- ❖ Add to your college portfolio

Youth Advocacy Council eligibility criteria:

- ❖ High school teen in grades 9-12
- ❖ Minimum of C average in all classes (attach a copy of your most recent report card)
- ❖ Complete YAC Application
- ❖ Parent Permission Slip
- ❖ Participate in Panel Interview

A successful YAC member:

- ❖ Is able to attend YAC activities, including meetings, retreats, events, community service, and conferences 2-3 times per month (one weekday, and one Saturday of the month)
 - YAC members are not permitted to miss more than 5 general meetings in a row
- ❖ Is responsible for managing time, academics, and extracurricular activities while being on the Council
- ❖ Has an interest in teen pregnancy prevention, youth activism, and speaking up for teen issues

Healthy Futures of Texas - Youth Advocacy Council

Parent Information and Permission Slip

Your child is applying to join the Healthy Futures of Texas Youth Advocacy Council (YAC) for the 2018 – 2019 academic school year. If selected as a YAC member, they will receive training in leadership, advocacy, communication, and public speaking skills related to teen pregnancy prevention and sexual health education. Youth will also learn about the political landscape, locally and statewide. Learn more about our work at www.hf-tx.org.

YAC members are expected to attend all activities, including but not limited to: general meetings, community service, conferences, community events, and retreats.

After the 2018-2019 Youth Advocacy Council is selected, we will be holding an information session in early summer for parents/guardians of selected students. We look forward to working closely with you in the coming year.
